INGATHERING OF NEEDLEWORK GUILD DECEMBER ELEVENTH

The 1946 Needlework Guild Ingathering for the Virginia Beach chapters will be held at the USO Club, Wednesday, December 11 at 4 p.m.

Mrs. Basil Manly, president of the Princess Anne Chapter announces that the USO will be open at 11 a.m. and the tables will be ready at that time. Should any director be unable to bring her articles to the club they will be called for if notified. Mrs. Manly also requests each director to solicit warm clothing which is good and usable, particularly for children between the ages of 7 and 14 years of age. There is a great need for warm clothing among the school children in the County.

Through its branches, The Needlework Guild of America, the "Charity which helps other Charities," gives to accredited institutions the needed linen and clothing which is members, numbering more than a million, bring to the Ingatherings all over the country each year.

No Dues

There are no dues and there is no national clearing house. Membership means an annual contribution of two new articles of clothing or linen. The reason for the two articles is the slogan "One to wear and one to wash." These articles are distributed in each community where the collections are made. Princess Anne County will get every article contributed.

Mrs. Manly says if anyone in the community has not been asked to contribute she will gladly receive any contribution, monetary or article of linen or clothes. The directors for this district are: the Mesdames Willard Ashburn, Rufus Parks, Henry Clay Perry, M. A. Nicholson, Charles Rodemann, Edward Hardy, Frank Trant, Selena Grandy, Harry W. Peck, Howard Allard, George Boush, Samuel Simpson, W. C. Powell and Miss Julia deWitt.

Meeting at Noon

There will be special business meeting of the Guild at the USO Club on the morning of the Ingathering at 12 noon. This meeting, Mrs. Manly said, is for the express purpose of electing officers for the coming year. All directors are urged to be present at this time to vote.

The public is cordially invited to attend from four to five.

Leeke Presides Over First Council Meeting In Capacity Of Mayor

St. Warfield Leeke, recently appointed Mayor of Virginia Beach, presided over his first council meeting Monday, December 2. He was faced with an unusually full slate of recommendations and appointing of new committees to study the financial structure of the town and recommended means of increasing the revenue and also to work out plans for the accomplishment of a number of physical improvement in the community.

In addition to the appointment of a Ways and Means Committee Mayor Leeke appointed a fuel committee to function during the fuel emergency. F. F. Murray was named chairman of this committee and R. B. Taylor of Fuel, Feed & Building Supplies, Fred Cooke of the Virginia Electric & Power Company with Councilman Halstead in an advisory capacity were named to assist Mr. Murray. The appointing of this local committee was at the request of the National Fuel Administration.

With a unanimous vote the Council placed a $2 annual fee on the 224 telephones and other utility poles at the Beach. Heretofore the town has received only a 25-cent inspection fee per pole upon installation. Coincident with this action, and upon recommendation of Town Engineer, Clyde Nicholson, Councilman Fred Haxcox made a motion, which was unanimously adopted, that as an emergency measure the fee for water main taps be raised from 34 to 60 and on sewer mains from $40 to $50. Due to the increase cost of materials these new figures will merely take care of the expense of installation. This new recommendation will not affect the applications now in the office of the Engineer, Mr. Nicholson said, but would be put into effect with all new building contracts.

There was considerable discussion before the Council, of the traffic problems which face the Town each season. Engineer Nicholson informed members of the Council that arrangements were under way to install traffic lights at the corners of Cypress and 17th, Baltic and 17th, Atlantic and 17th, 20th & Atlantic, 26th & Atlantic and 31st & Atlantic, as soon as authorization was received from the State Highway Commission.

Parking meters also were taken into consideration again, both as an aid to traffic and a means of new revenue, but no definite action was taken this time. The meters were recommended along with the traffic lights when the State Highway Commission made a survey of traffic conditions at the Beach some time ago.

Other improvements pending: W. O. Beasley, representing citizens living in the recently developed 23rd and 24th streets near Baltic Ave., made a plea for additional fire protection as there is no fire hydrant in that vicinity. Chief of Police Hobeck recommended to the Council the installation of one 8 inch main at the North West corner of 23rd and Baltic as a temporary protection and the Council agreed to install additional hydrants as soon as the necessary funds were available.

Mr. Ed. Hardy of Fuel, Feed & Building Supplies requested action from the Council to relieve the very bad drainage situation on 17th street in which the entire area on the North side between Pacific and Atlantic becomes inundated and impassable with every heavy rain. Mr. Hardy was assured that this condition would be remedied at the earliest possible date and that plans to widen 17th street in this block should relieve the situation. This project is among the improvements considered when funds are available, Mayor Leeke said.

In summing up the improvements accomplished in the first three months of the fiscal year, Town Engineer Nicholson stated the installation of 66 water and sewer mains; granting of 35 building permits, repairs and painting the Town Water tanks; resurfacing, draining and making necessary repairs to 26 streets in the Town Limits with a total expenditure of $12,000.

Sanitary Conditions Sanitary Engineer Petty reported at the close of the meeting that due to the modern sewage disposal plant, Virginia Beach is one of the few towns in the state which meets all requirements of the State Sanitary Commission, and that a certificate of existing conditions was being sent to the Commission in Richmond.

Miss Anne Myers, formerly of Mrs. Kimball's shop, has moved her home in the January edition to the Beach. She is a well-known figure in the community.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

CHRIS: "They just came in this morning from Jim's place. By the way, have you seen his cattle lately?"

OLD JUDGE: "Yes, I have, Chris. Fattest looking bunch of steers I've seen in some time. I know the reason, too. He's using distillers' dried grains in his corn ration."

CHRIS: "Bestest thing, the way those distillers' grains put weight on cattle and hogs."

OLD JUDGE: "Jim says he's never seen anything like it. He figures he saves about 20 per cent of the grain he'd regularly feed, which pays for the distillers' grains and he gets a 4 per cent increase in weight to boot."

CHRIS: "There's a lot of people, Judge, who still don't know what these distillers' grains are doing for the farmers and how they are increasing the country's meat supply. If they did you wouldn't hear any talk about distillers wasting grain. They just don't realize what a high percentage of the grain used to distill alcohol comes back to the farms in the form of these rich protein concentrates."

Bible Class To Present Mystic

The Men's Bible Class of the Virginia Beach Methodist Church is preparing a gala magical event for December 6. Mystic Shore, world celebrated magician, will be presented in two performances in the Oceana High School auditorium, matinee and evening, and according to Mr. L. M. Jarr, who is making arrangements for the entertainment, this performance of magic hypnotism and "apokry" will thrill the most skeptical. And, according to previews "The ghastly, its horrific, its out of this world."

It may not be a good idea to count your chickens before they are hatched, but it sure is a lot of fun.

"THE VOICE of a majority, warning the course of government does not insure good government except it be the voice of a well-informed and well-intentioned people."

THE FOURTH BRANCH OF GOVERNMENT

President Truman's request that a Republican Congress with a Democratic Executive branch of government received general approval from Republican leaders. This is especially true in the field of foreign affairs, where Senator Vandenberg has been working on equal footing with Secretary Byrnes.

The President observed that the Republicans had won Congress by Constitutional means—while he and his associates controlled Executive functions by Constitutional means. There can be no quarrel with that point of view. At the same time, it must be clear to all that one great fact produced by the elections is that the American people are heartily sick of what might be termed the "fourth branch" of government.

This fourth branch came into being over the years through Executive order. It has been maintained by the Executive. It consists of the thousands and thousands of bureaus, commissions, boards, committees, and agencies which were never specifically ordered by the American people—and which have taken upon themselves many of the functions of Congress and the courts. These agencies constantly hamper industry through unwarrantable and obscure regulations of their own devising. They touch every phase of our life with the first hand of bureaucracy. In one after case, they set themselves up as prosecutor, jury and judge.

If Congress and the Executive are responsive to the people, their first task is to rid the country of this costly, freedom-destroying fourth branch of government as rapidly as possible.

You'll be rid of the bureaucracy pretty quick enough if you don't pay back.

WHOSE TAIL IS BURNING?

The Saturday Evening Post recently ran an article on turkeys. To illustrate the birds' stupidity, the author cites instances where they roosted on lighted flares thus slowly roasting themselves alive, and apparently didn't know whose tail was burning.

The magnitude of the fire loss in this country makes the American people seem alarmingly like the turkey. Fire is under and around them—but they don't seem to know it.

Some facts issued by the National Board of Fire Underwriters which is conducting the most aggressive campaign in its long history to make America conscious of the fire menace, tell part of the story. One out of every hundred homes is destroyed or damaged by fire each year. Every day, on the average, 110 stores burn.

Fire strikes in 29,900 factories each year. The daily total of theater hotel and restaurant fires runs to 78. It all adds up to a total loss which may exceed $600,000,000 this year. If that doesn't impress you, maybe the fact that fire destroys between ten and eleven thousand lives annually will.

A turkey could save itself by the simple expedient of hopping off the burning flare. The American people could prevent something like 90 per cent of all fires by almost equally simple expedients. Proper care with smoking materials, plus periodic inspections and repair of heating plants and electrical equipment, would alone effect a gigantic cut in the total loss.

Turkeys are stupid. Their instinct of self preservation is inadequately developed. But we who permit loss and death by fire to continue at record levels, are in no position to laugh at them.

CONSERVE YOUR FUEL

Seldom has the nation been threatened from without with a greater danger that it is now threatened from within. We are faced, in effect, with an industrial insurrection. Always have we met threats from without; is it now impossible for us to meet a threat from within? Having met and overcome the insatiable desire for power evidenced by Hitler and Mussolini, are we incapable of reducing to size a supreme egoist who believes himself more powerful than the United States government and more important than 143,100,000 people.

While the primary responsibility of meeting this menace rests with the leaders of the nation, the individual citizen, too, must play his part. He must preserve to conserve every pound of coal possible. If the government can prove itself as determined as John L. Lewis has always proved himself, then this country will face a condition which it never

Hunters Reported Careful While In Woods

As thousands of hunters polish firearms in preparation for their annual pilgrimage to the woods to bag their full share of game, State Forester, George W. Dean, said, "Very few forest fires were caused by hunters last year. We enter the Fall hunting season with full confidence that sportsmen will continue to be careful with fire."

The forester said that hunters were almost unanimous in the belief that forest fires destroy the nests and eggs of game birds, kill young birds and game animals and destroy their food and shelter. Such conviction on the part of sportsmen, he believes, has caused many of them to be most careful with fire in the woods. He attributes the good fire record for past hunting seasons to the fine cooperation of hunters.

For his information of young sportsmen and other hunters who may not have learned how to use fire safely, the State Forester repeated the following forest fire prevention rules:

SMOKERS: Break or pinch the match to be sure it's out; crush out the cigarette; dump pipe ashes in damp earth and step on them; use the ash tray in the car; stop to smoke in safe places.

CAMPERS: Before building fire clear a wide space, free from all grass, leaves and other inflammable material. Before leaving fire, drown with water or cover with dirt.

John Senter Reports For Potato Growers

John B. Senter, president of the Princess Anne County Farm Bureau, addressing members of the Bureau at the October meeting stated that Virginia's 1947 potato production goal would be 32,000 acres, which is 13 1/2 per cent reduction from 1946 planted acreage. Virginia potato people had requested 35,000 acres.

Mr. Senter also said that there is need for considerable improvement in the market setup if Princess Anne farmers are going to stay in the potato game.

"When California can ship potatoes 3,000 miles to our own market in Norfolk while we are right in the midst of our marketing season something is radically wrong," he said. "If we do not have the right variety of potatoes before we make some effort before has known. Be prepared. Conserve your fuel."

If you've got a lot of push, the pull will take care of itself.

Win Virginia 4-H State Honors

VIRGINIA'S 4-H state winners in the 1946 Better Methods Electric Field Crops, Poultry and Dress Revue award programs who will each receive a trip to the 25th Anniversary National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, and brief outlines of their records follow:

Shirley Southall, 14, of Pamplin, receives the Chicago trip award provided by the American Viscose Corp. for making and modeling the top rating outfit in the State 1946 4-H Dress Revue. Shirley's winning outfit is a yellow wool two piece suit. The jacket is tailored with a cardigan neck line and skirt with kick pleat in front. Shirley chose yellow for her suit because the color was becoming to her and could be worn with either black or brown accessories. Total cost of her outfit was $14.12.

George Wetzel, 16, of Woodstock, wins the Chicago trip award provided by Swift & Co. for his record in the National 4-H Poultry Achievement activity. During five years in club work, the boy received $18.00 in cash prizes on exhibits, and an estimated poultry income of $2,985.30. George has adopted many approved practices of poultry production and has been active in judging and demonstration contests. He is a recognized leader in his community and as officer in the Woodstock High School F.F.A. Four state co-winners who each received a $25.00 U. S. Savings Bond are: Evelyn Morgan, Baskerville; Chester Bowman, Boone Mill; Elizabeth Polling, Fordswood; and Gladys Carroll, Boyce.

Glenna Flak, 19, of Bergton, received the Chicago trip award.

All of these activities were conducted under the direction of the Extension Service of the State Agricultural College and USDA co-operating.

for outstanding achievements in the 1946 Westinghouse 4-H Better Methods Activity. Glenna has been a 4-H'er for six years. Among her work simplification accomplishments on the farm and in the home is that of studying the job of doing the family laundry. She proposed building a laundry room, equipping it with tubs and drains, installing an electric water system and water heater and providing convenient clothes lines. This would cost about $200.00 but in a year would save nine days time, prevent walking 140,972 feet and lifting 24,333 pounds.

Charlie Craddock, 19, of Chatham, won highest rating in the state 4-H Field Crops Activity, in which International Harvester provides the awards. During six years of club work, the boy produced 6 1/2 acres of corn, 4 acres of wheat and 4 acres of sorghum which returned him $475.65, making his total estimated project income $4,511.40. His success is due to the adoption of such practices as using a desirable crop rotation, preventing erosion, applying essential fertilizer. He exhibited the first place hybrid corn at the Danville fair this year. Charlie has served as Junior leader for three years and is president of the Pittsylvania County 4-H Council and Home Club.

Here's the Score:

AFTER ONE WEEK OF CURTAILMENT OF ELECTRICITY,

Due to the Coal Strike,

WHAT ARE THE RESULTS?

Perhaps you think the present emergency is too broad in its scope to be YOUR concern as an individual. It may seem that the solution of such a BIG problem must lie with the BIG users of Electricity.

This is not so! It's the individual saving—kilowatt hour by kilowatt hour—multiplied by thousands, which will mean MUCH at this critical period.

It's UP TO YOU and YOU and YOU to Save Electricity

THE TRUTH IS that this Nation now faces the most serious crisis since Pearl Harbor! It's FAR MORE SERIOUS than when Electricity was rationed last spring, which was also caused by a coal strike.

Saving Electricity NOW may avoid drastic rationing later, with its consequent hardships.

From where I sit... by Joe Marshall
A Lesson
In Conservation
We were sitting on Bill Webster's porch the other night, chatting over a glass of beer—when the talk turned to forest preservation, soil erosion, and other things that affect a farming community.
Judge Cunningham speaks up:
"It's all right to worry about conserving our natural resources," he says, "but there's a far bigger problem when it comes to conservation—and that's preserving our democratic way of life, our sense of personal freedom, our respect for one another's rights."
From where I sit, the Judge is right. All America's great resources, our abundant natural wealth, are lost the minute we lose the right to work them as free people in a free land!
Whenever you see or hear of an encroachment on our rights—whether it's the right to free speech, or the right to vote as we see fit, or the right to enjoy a friendly glass of beer in licensed, law-abiding places... watch out!

MAYOR LEEKE ASKS RESIDENTS TO OBSERVE FIRE ORDINANCES

THE WARNING NOTE

To be forewarned is to be forearmed.

The people of the United States have been shocked and horrified at the tragic hotel fires which have taken such a staggering toll of lives within the last year.

Virginia Beach is a community of hotels, none as large as the ones in which the fires occurred, but many of them along the ocean front where winds from the sea could fan the smallest blaze into a raging inferno.

Property owners in Virginia Beach are mindful of this hazard and there have been few disastrous fires in the life of the community. However it appears that even fire resistant hotels burn and life is lost.

The Town of Virginia Beach

has ordinances regulating the safety and fire preventive measures which all property owners must adhere to. Mayor H. Warfield Leeke is anxious to maintain the reputation of the resort and to safeguard its residents and visitors. Notices have been sent to property owners and the recent check-up by the fire department reveals that most of the places have complied with requirement. He further urges every property owner to familiarize himself with fire regulations and to be constantly "fire conscious".

A warning note has been sound and Mayor Leeke urges every one in the community to heed this warning that Virginia Beach may not have a similar tragedy marked against its good record.

Fire Destroys Unit Oceana Hi News In Tourist Haven On Fifteenth St.

The Virginia Beach Fire Department answered two fire calls during the week. A slight blaze in the boiler room of the Atlantic Cleaners was the call on Wednesday and about 8:30 a.m. Thursday the department answered a call to Tourist Haven on 15th St.

The home occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Leonard and child and Mr. Leonard's mother was completely destroyed by flames. The origin was thought to be a short circuit in an electric clock which set the dresser scarf on fire.

The Virginia Beach fire department, with assistant Chief E. B. Bayne and aid from the volunteer fire department, did an excellent job in confining the blaze to the one unit of the group. These frame houses are very close together and a fire from one appearance was the only building to receive any damage. Mrs. Leonard was slightly burned when rescuing child from the burning building.

TO OUR READERS

With a limited working force individual vacations are not to be enjoyed. The solution is a collective vacation. There will be no issue of the "NEWS" Christmas week and the office will be closed the week of December 22 while the members of the staff (all five) enjoy the Christmas holidays.

Masons Elect Bell To Head Local Lodge Number 274

The thirty fourth annual State convocation of Virginia Beach Lodge No. 274, A. F. & A. M. was held Wednesday night, December 11th at the Masonic Temple, on Pacific Ave. at 16th street.

John H. Bell, local automobile dealer, was elected Worshipful Master, J. H. Farron, Senior Warden and J. E. Marr, Junior Warden, for the coming year. Other officers elected were, C. E. Hobeck, Treasurer, A. Hugh Simmons, Sec'y., E. P. Aylett, Senior Deacon and J. W. Wolcott, Junior Deacon.

In addition to the above, the Worshipful Master made the following appointments for the coming year. T. W. Land, Senior Steward, Fred Trummer, Junior Steward, C. F. Saunders and C. P. Marshall, Chaplains, and William A. Litchfield, Tiler.

The Lodge was open for business at 8 p.m. and recessed for dinner at 7 p.m. There were approximately 150 Masons on hand for the meeting which was the largest attendance on record. Mr. Bell was presented to the Lodge and installed as Worshipful Master by his brother, Morris H. Bell of Norfolk who was installed Master of Corinthian Lodge No. 166 exactly eleven years ago, on Dec. 11, 1935. The meeting was closed by an address by E. E. Waterfield, District Deputy Grand Master of the fifty sixth Masonic District.

Local Red Cross Appoints Two New Chairmen

Two new members have been elected to membership on the Board of the Princess Anne County Chapter of the American Red Cross, as announced by H. W. Chaffee, chairman. Mr. Miles C. Horton, Jr., will serve as the new Home Service Chairman and Mrs. M. V. McLaughlin, counselor to Mr. I. L. Llewellyn, chairman of Community Services to Camp & Hospital.

Mrs. McLaughlin, Mr. Llewellyn and Miss Pear Duty, executive secretary, will attend the annual meeting of all communities on community services to camps and hospitals in the Tidewater area to be held at the Norfolk chapter headquarters this week.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

HERB: "I'll be glad to come to the meeting. I always figured alcoholism was something for the doctors to treat and not the police."

OLD JUDGE: "More and more people are beginning to realize that, Herb. Fortunately only about 1 1/2 per cent of the people who use alcoholic beverages are problem drinkers, but they deserve the same professional treatment as any other sick person."

HERB: "I had the idea there were more than that."

OLD JUDGE: "No. That's the generally accepted figure. Scientists at one of the big universities have been studying alcoholism for some time, and they estimate that 95 per cent of the people who use alcoholic beverages are temperate and self-disciplined drinkers. Among the other 5 per cent who occasionally are not, about one-fourth are what they call compulsive or problem drinkers."

HERB: "Are they making any progress, Judge, in finding out what really ails them?"

OLD JUDGE: "Our speaker tomorrow night will tell you all about it, Herb. Most of these people are suffering from some deep-seated physical or mental condition that makes them incapable of facing life without some crutch to lean on."

HERB: "You can count on me being there. That's exactly what I've thought all along, but I want to hear the real scientific facts."

Miss Hill of County Club Protests Holly Destruction

The Princess Anne Garden Club held its December meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lester Gayle with Miss Elizabeth Gregory Hill, president presiding.

At the business meeting Miss Hill reported that 15 cars were seen on route 60 loaded with holly taken from the woods of the County and that she had reported the matter to State Police and the Highway Department for protection in keeping the highways free from the apparent vandalism.

E. T. Duval, counselor of the American Rose Society, has notified Miss Hill that the annual fall meeting of the Rose Society, will be held at Virginia Beach in 1947. The Princess Anne Garden Club is a sustaining member of the organization and the members of the club voted to lend full cooperation in preparation for the meeting.

The annual garden week pilgrimages will be resumed next April 28 - May 3, 4 after having been discontinued during the war years. Several homes in Princess Anne County will be on the tour and Miss Hill appointed Mrs. Guay Friebus and Mrs. Walter Mitchell from the Princess Anne Club to work with the State chairman in promoting the Historic Garden Tour.

Miss Evelyn Collins Hill had a special exhibit of old roses, yellow iris, paper white narcissus, a collection of camellias and many varieties of hollies and berried shrubs. All specimens were grown on Sea Breeze Farm on the Lynn haven River, the home of the Hills.

Tea was served at the close of the meeting, by the hostess.

Accident Fatal To Walter Best

Inquest was held Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. in the death of Walter Best, 36, at DePaul Hospital Saturday following a highway accident. Dr. C. D. J. Macdonald, Norfolk city coroner, said.

The Princess Anne County Board of Agriculture held its first meeting of the winter at the Princess Anne Courthouse School on Monday night, December 9th with 21 members in attendance.

According to report by H. W. O'Connell County Agent and Secretary to Board of Agriculture, dinner was served by the P.T.A. of the school.

R. W. Shelton, Chairman of the County Board, presided. A report of the past year's work was given by H. W. O'Connell, County Agent; A. V. Watts, County Agent at Large; John B. Senior, President of the County Farm Bureau; and A. A. Holmes, County Engineer for the Virginia Dare Soil Conservation District.

The main business of the meeting was to set up Committees to work on the 1947 program. For the General County Program of Agriculture for 1947, W. L. Green Vocational Agricultural Teacher at Creeds High School; L. H. Vaughan, Member of the County Board of Supervisors; and A. A. Curtis, Assistant County Agent, were appointed.

For the Extension Program of Work for 1947, H. W. O'Connell, L. A. Williams, and J. E. Ives were appointed.

The Chairman appointed Rev. J. W. Mast as a member of the Adult 4-H Committee to take the place of E. W. Hawkins who has left the county.

A. B. Partridge, W. B. Menden, and A. N. Holmes were appointed as a Soil Conservation Committee and were instructed by the board to make a study as to the possibilities of getting the County Board of Supervisors to provide for the purchasing of a floating dredge to be used in clearing out swampy waterways in the county.

The Chairman appointed J. W. Fetter as a Committeeman to work with the Farm Bureau Committee on Corn and Soybean Demonstrations for 1947.

L. A. Williams, A. V. Watts, and E. W. Lane were appointed as the Chairman as a Committee to investigate the possible use of Pungo Air Field to the county and to go before the Board of Supervisors with their recommendations. The Board went on record as favoring the county taking over Pungo Air Field for the following uses: Part of the field to be used as a farm labor camp; certain buildings to be turned over to young people's recreational center; other buildings to be used for sweet potato storage and packing center; and the runway in the field to be used in the future as a shipping center for perishable produce by air and also to be leased to commercial concerns in training pilots.

J. W. Rodgers, District Agent for Extension work in Eastern Virginia, was introduced to the Board by the Chairman. Mr. Rodgers complimented the members of the Board on the work that has been done in the past few years and stated that the Princess Anne County Board of Agriculture was functioning to a higher degree than any other Board in his district. Mr. Rodgers also pointed out the possibilities of such a board in improving agricultural conditions and raising the standard of living in the county.

The Board decided to hold its next meeting on the second Monday night in January.

ROOSEVELT WAS CARELESS

Good advice to the nation came over the air waves when Edward J. Hickey, State Fire Marshal of Connecticut, spoke on a country-wide broadcast sponsored by the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

"I want to warn you about a disaster that might strike at any one of you—the disaster of fire," he said. "Through our nation the toll of lives and property from fire is mounting to an unprecedented high."

"Most of these lives were lost because someone was careless.
We here in America must realize now that each year we are destroying—largely through our own carelessness—the lives of 10,000 of our people and almost 600 million dollars in homes, business properties, commodities and natural resources.

"No nation, not even ours, can afford to be so wasteful. No nation is rich enough to squander its human and material wealth as we are doing today."

"The tragedy of fire lies not only in its ghastly toll, but in the fact that it is needless. Not more than one fire in ten can honestly be said to be "unpreventable." The human factor is the cause of the other nine. And that factor means you and your neighbor—every one of us.

STRIKES AT STRIKES

Did you ever stop to think that the industrial warfare is our own country has been one of the most paralyzing series of attempts to weaken the strength of the United States?

The loss to the striking labor unions during six months of this year amounted to more than one billion dollars in wages. Most of their strikes were unnecessary and ineffectual. The strikes in steel, mining, electrical equipment, steamships, railroads and automobiles have amounted to billions of dollars. There is no way to estimate to what extent the strikes were responsible for the skyrocketing rise of prices—say 50 per cent.

There is no way of successfully disputing a statement from the Chamber of Commerce of the United States which declared:
"The hope of sound, enduring prosperity is a mirage unless we have an end to strikes which rip production to pieces and throttle prices." Think it over!

How to Wrap Christmas Packages
NOTHING brightens up a Christmas scene quite as much as a wide variety of colorfully wrapped gift packages. If you save, during the year, bits of ribbon and unusual pieces of bright paper, your holiday gifts will cause a great deal of comment.

One quick and easy source of colorful wrappings is wall paper. If you have no roll ends of paper saved from house refurbishing.

Start a "bank" of wrapping material by purchasing several rolls of inexpensive wall paper at the local paint shop.

Some years ago we had a very
ing seal made for use at Christmas.
It carries a holiday greeting and our names. After wrapping a package we put a piece of red ribbon around the center and held it in place with a dab of hot wax sealing wax carrying the seal impression.

Don't be afraid to do the unusual when wrapping gifts. Sometimes it's fun to camouflage the contents to keep the recipient guessing until the last minute. A narrow package can be rolled in paper that extends several inches beyond the ends, then pull the excess together at each end like the top of a sock, with a bright bow of ribbon. The same technique can be used with a square squat package, by wrapping the bottom in regular fashion, then putting a "sock top" on it with ribbon or cord.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

A Grand American Tradition

The Cuppers had a grand old family reunion last week—for the first time since the war.

Big and little Cuppers came, by car and train, from as far west as Nebraska, and as far east as Vermont. They crowded Doe and Jane's house, set up quarters in the barns, or stopped with neighbors—and a jollier gathering you couldn't have imagined!

I was asked to their final Saturday night supper, when they sang old songs, drank beer and cider, reminisced. Dark Cuppers and blonde ones—Vermont apples—I Alabama drawls—doctors and lawyers... all with their differences of taste and politics, yet as close and harmonious in spirit as a group could be.

From where I sit, it's a great American tradition—not just family reunions, but the ability to get along as one harmonious family, regardless of differences of taste—whether it's taste for politics or farming, beer or cider.

WHY CARS ARE SCARCE

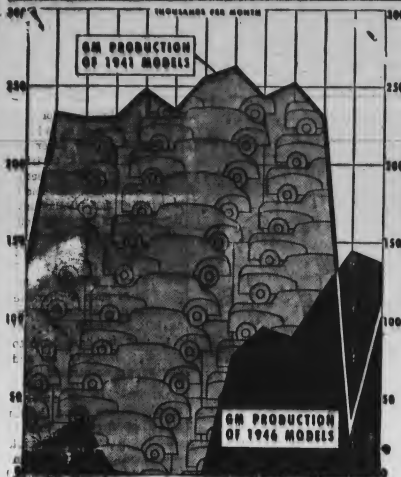

Chart indicates difference between General Motors production of 1946 model cars and the greater 1941 models. Shortages of materials and supplies have seriously retarded postwar output—1,500,000 units less than the corresponding 11-month prewar period.
The number of cars and trucks produced in GM plants in U. S. and Canada is shown. The line representing 1941 model production begins in September, 1940, and that for 1946 models begins in September, 1945. Production begins in August, 1945, reflects changeover from 1941 to restricted production of 1946 models. Period of no production of 1946 models reflects strike action G.M.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKinn

ONE day an FBI agent telephoned Ellis Arnall, Governor of Georgia. "Last night the Klan had a meeting," he said. "I thought you would be interested in what they decided. They proposed that each of five Klaverns select five men, and that the five Cyclops select five from this twenty-five, and send their names to the Grand Dragon, who would pick two of them to 'do a job on you'."

Governor Arnall tells this story in his book, "The Shore Dimly Seen." It's easy to understand why the Ku Klux Klan feel that way about the Governor. The Klan was prosecuted by his administration. Chain gangs were abolished. State finances were overhauled and the debt paid off for the first time in over a century. The poll tax has been eliminated and the vote given to youth at the age of eighteen.

Gov. Arnall. Drew Pearson says of Governor Arnall's "The Shore Dimly Seen," "As good a book as his administration of Georgia, which is saying a lot." The reforms he has brought about are but part of a larger thesis. He sees Georgia as one detail in the pattern of America, and he believes one cannot hold together without the other.

The Book-of-the-Month Club has a double selection coming up for January—both novels—"Mr. Standish Builds His Dream House" by Eric Hodgins and "The Angelic Avengers" by Pierre Anzures. And the Club's book-division for January and February will be "A Treasury of Grand Opera," edited by Henry W. Simon and illustrated by Raffello Busoni.

Perhaps it is because we all have a touch of madness that we can smile at the absurdities of the village idiot, says Louis Untermeyer in "A Treasury of Laughter." Among his "lunatic fringe" stories is the one about the two men who had remarkable good luck on a fishing expedition. Toward the end of the day one of them said, "This is a good spot. I wish we had some way of finding it tomorrow." "Why don't you put a mark on the boat?" said the other. "That sounds reasonable," said his comrade, "but how do you know that we'll get the same boat?"

Leona Flood To Appear Here In Concert On Jan. 6

Leona Flood, violinist, who is being presented in recital January 6 at Oceana High School by the Lions Club of Virginia Beach, is the latest young American artist to attract the attention of critics and music lovers. Born in Spokane, Wash., Miss Flood made her concert debut in Oslo, Norway and played throughout Europe and Australia before coming back to the States at the outbreak of the war. Miss Flood has been for the past two years playing recitals from coast to coast, and has everywhere met with acclaim from press and public.

When this very gifted young girl played in New York, at the Brooklyn Academy of Music, Miles Kestendiek (Brooklyn Eagle, February 19, 1945) wrote as follows: "Leona Flood plays the violin with freshness and forthrightness. Her chief asset is a beautiful full-bodied tone which has the requisite intensity and resonance. Her technique is accomplished. Works like Vivaldi's 'Chaconne' and Paganini's 'Concerto in D' held no terrors for her. Chopin's 'E minor Waltz' and Noyce's 'Moto Perpetuo,' she tossed off with style and temperance. . . a talented player." In Minneapolis, John K. Sherman (Star-Journal, January 12, 1945) said: "Leona Flood, brilliant young violinist, brought out what looked like the entire membership of the Thursday Musical. . . The program focused attention on the gifts of the young and attractive Miss Flood, exhibited in such fare as the Paganini D major concerto, the Chaconne Poeme, a suite by Cyril Scott, and Ravel's 'Tzigane.' Her playing had fire, personality, a fast-fingered skill that devoured difficult detail with assurance and fluency. . . The Paganini concerto . . . requiring terrific skill (was) of musical interest to brother and sister fiddlers in the audience. . . Miss Flood took all its paces in stride . . . keeping the devilish minutiae in line and proportion throughout. . . Tickets for the concert are now on sale at Webb's Pharmacy, Meredith's Drug Stores No. 1 and No. 2, Barr's Pharmacy and at Jards.

Chesapeake Club

A basket of food for Christmas will be donated to a needy family of the community if it was voted by the members of the Chesapeake Garden Club. Mrs. Agnes Shoemaker, president, presided over the meeting held on Monday night at the Community Center.

The hostess for the meeting was Mrs. J. F. Cherry, Jr., assisted by Mrs. Schenck. A social hour followed the meeting and it was announced that the next meeting would be held on January 13, in the form of a New Year's Party.

Willow Spout Shop Changes Name To "The Waites"

Mr. F. L. Waite has announced that the gift and children's shop long known as "Willow Spout Handicrafts" is changing its name to "The Waites".

The original location was at Fort Defiance, Va. opposite the famous Willow Spout spring, where the water comes out of a spout from the center of a willow tree. The shop was opened in 1938 by Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Waite, and featured the handmade products from the Southern highlands.

The Waites moved to Virginia Beach in May 1941 and the shop was located on Atlantic Ave. at 25th street, its present location. With the addition of children's apparel in 1942, the name "Willow Spout Handicrafts" lost its significance, therefore the change at this time to the less cumbersome name, "The Waites".

Store Opened Here

The Western Auto Associates Store, owned and operated by M. Luther Ball, resident of Virginia Beach for the past ten years, opened for business on December 14.

Located at 406 17th street this new store, with modern, up-to-date furnishings has a supply of Xmas toys and games, bicycles and children's wheel toys. Electric toasters and waffle irons are also available as well as a limited supply of Davis Tires and Wizard Batteries.

Mr. Ball says that he expects a full line of Auto Accessories by the first of the year and that his present stock is an indication of the type merchandise which he will carry all times. It is his intention, as soon as materials are available, to make additions to his plant for servicing 50 cars.

Leeke Receives Thanks For Aid In Fuel Shortage

During the recent emergency fuel rationing, Mayor H. Warfield Leeke set up, at the request of A. Anderson, Virginia Emergency Fuel Commission chairman, a committee to act in case of any local emergency. This committee was composed of councilman P. Murray, chairman; R. B. Taylor and G. Fred Cook, Jr.

Mayor Leeke received the following letter from Mr. Anderson expressing appreciation of his speedy action in appointing the committee and of the cooperation given the state organization:

Gentlemen: Everyone is delighted that the coal strike is over and the threat of disaster is removed from Virginia and the nation. We trust that steps will be taken to prevent a recurrence of such a crippling blow.

While the production of coal is being resumed, it will be some time before normal distribution can be expected. It is of the utmost importance that your committee continues to function until that time.

The Emergency Fuel Commission wants all of you and your families to know that we deeply appreciate the wonderful response you gave every request made of you. Please accept our best thanks for a difficult task well done.

With our best thanks for your fine work and with all good wishes for each of you."

Very sincerely,
Virginia Emergency Fuel Com.

Legion To Meet

The first meeting of the year for the American Legion Post 113 will be held in Legion Hall on January 2 at 8 p.m. Adjutant John Norton in announcing the meeting is requesting a full attendance as a new membership contest will be inaugurated. In order to participate in the "prize barrel" the member whose name is drawn must be present, he said.

COUNTY BOARD HEARS MOTION ON PURCHASE OF AIR FIELD

The far age on the item known broadly over Princess Anne County yesterday as War Assets Administration representative and interested residents sought energetically to sell the County Board of Supervisors the new life Force naval auxiliary air field. The reasons: to provide a future air freight terminal, to use the station's well-built barracks for produce storage and community welfare.

The supervisors listened to the WAA's proposal and sent a committee to view the site and make further recommendations. On its inspection trip, the committee found a first rate small air field, two substantial, usable buildings including a 64 room barracks officer's quarters, light heat and some 20 frame barracks.

The WAA's proposition was that the county might acquire the field, its hangar and maintenance buildings without cost. The balance of the buildings, it could acquire at a "fair price" to be fixed by government assessors.

Several Possibilities

Local proponents, including the Ruritan Club and the County Board of Agriculture, saw in it several possibilities. Situated near the center of the county, the slender block buildings could be used for storage, 4-H Club and Scout meetings, county gatherings or for potato storage. The air field offered facilities for private flying and the possible future shipment of farm produce by air. There was some talk of setting up a transient labor camp in a far corner.

The only string attached to the deal requires the county to maintain the airport in reasonable condition. Only three Princess Anne farmers were reported to have planes.

The airport purchase proposal came before the regular monthly meeting of the Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors, which also voted to have the use of firecrackers, torpedoes, caps, guns, cannon and even noisemakers, pyrotechnics except for purposes of public display and under the supervision of the county sheriff. This action was taken despite protests of merchants that they had substantial inventories of fireworks on hand. Passed shortly before the noon, the ordinance took effect at once.

The Board, whose responsibility it soon will be to issue 1947 licenses, heard a plea of resident operators that it limit the number to 25 or 30. Reduction of

County Boy Fire Crew Halts Fire Near Creeds High

District Forester T. S. Turner, Portsmouth, has announced that high school boys in Princess Anne County are among the boys in the district who have formed forest fire crews.

These crews are known as the KVGs, in keeping with the slogan, "Keep Virginia Green."

Turner said that a wood fire which occurred last Wednesday night near Creeds High School, was extinguished by prompt action of members of the Creeds High School fire control unit before one acre had been burned. The district forester stated that the fire was discovered by a member of the crew, who immediately notified Dan Spence, leader of the crew. Turner said that had it not been for the quick work on the part of Spence and his crew the fire undoubtedly would have reached serious proportions.

These crews were first organized during the summer months during the war years.

naval facilities, admittedly the substantial source of their business, had badly hurt farms, they argued, with the result that some cases were being used for illicit purposes. A first come first served policy was proposed with the clause in favor of county resident operators.

Hospital Funds

A second plea came from Miss Lina Cameron, public health supervisor for the county, who is concerned with taking advantage of State funds offered on a 50-50 basis to cover hospitalization of indigents. Unless a contract is signed with Norfolk hospitals and approved by the State Health Department by January 1 she explained, the county will lose the 50 per cent reimbursement due it for the last half of 1946. The board named its chairman, M. G. Mansfield, as its agent to sign contracts with Norfolk hospitals.

Miss Cameron's request brought up a second point. Persons taken by county and State Police to Norfolk hospitals for emergency first aid are treated and the county billed 50 cents per treatment but no names or addresses of patients are furnished. The hospitals said Miss Cameron, refuse to do fancy bookkeeping on a 50-cent charge.

Paying a fee bill of more than $200 for the last several months, the board nevertheless threatened to refuse future payment without at least patients' names being reported.

Water, sewage and sanitation, a never failing problem, had its timing when delegations from North Virginia Beach and Glenrock laid their problems before the board.

North Virginia Beach, an unincorporated community lying between the town and Port Henry, has 1,500 lots and 562 houses, a spokesman said. Its future growth would render septic tanks a dangerous nuisance.

He then laid before the board a plan designed by David Duggan, manager of the Hampton Roads Sanitation Commission and a North Virginia Beach resident, to provide for a $250,000 sewage disposal system. Duggan also called for eight miles leading to a farm main running along Atlantic Boulevard. Financed on revenue bonds, he said, the cost would run approximately $250 per house per month for 20 years.

The board advised him as it advised the Glenrock delegation seeking water, lights and sewage, that the residents might petition the Circuit Court for the creation of a sanitation district which would have power to finance the project by private bonds.

Glenrock's only other out-of-pocket expense one for its 150 homes would be to raise 75 per cent of the cost of running Norfolk city mains into the community. The delegation said that residents were caught between the city's high cost service and a state law requiring wells and septic tanks to be 25 feet apart.

Teachers' Pay Issue

Appearing briefly before the board, county superintendent of schools, F. W. Cox, said that consideration of raising teachers' pay in the county would be held in abeyance pending the January special session of the General Assembly.

Reports were omitted from a joint session of the supervisors and school board, held last month in which the question apparently was discussed. The teachers' proposed to seek a 10 per cent salary increase.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

OLD JUDGE: "Looks like you're going to be better off on dairy feed this winter, Claude. We've got a big crop of wheat and the outlook for corn is fine, too."

CLAUDE: "That's right, Judge. I hope the distillers will get more grain now."

OLD JUDGE: "You must be using distillers' dried grains, Claude."

CLAUDE: "I sure do, Judge, whenever I can get them. They are the best protein feed I've ever used. I figure I get anywhere from 25 to 30 per cent more butterfat when I use them in my dairy ration."

OLD JUDGE: "It's too bad, Claude, that more people don't know how important these dried concentrates are to you farmers. When you hear folks talking about distillers wasting grain they just don't realize how much of it is recovered and returned to the farm in a much more nourishing form than the original grain."

CLEM: "You said it, Judge. If we could get all the distillers' dried grains we need we'd not only step up the production of all dairy products, but we'd fatten our beef cattle and hogs much faster and get them to market quicker."

Norfolk & Western Shortens Name Of New Orleans Train

Because of feminine curiosity, the Southern-Norfolk and Western previously ungainly designated "New York, Chattanooga and New Orleans Limited, Trains Nos. 41 and 42," recently was given a new name, "The Pelican." Operated over Norfolk and Western Railway tracks and by N. & W. locomotives and train crews between Lynchburg, Va., and Bristol, Va.-Tenn., the New York-bound train leaves Roanoke at 12:40 a.m. Its southern twin leaves Roanoke at 6:35 a.m.

The suggestion for the name came from Mrs. B. M. Grunwald, member of a prominent New Orleans family. Not long ago her curiosity was aroused when she noted, while thumbing thru a timetable, that short, descriptive names had been given to most trains serving New Orleans, except the mouth-filling "New York Chattanooga" etc.

The suggestion came at an opportune time, when consideration was being given to improving the train schedule. And what name would be more appropriate than "The Pelican" for a train operating to and from New Orleans, queen city of "The Pelican State"?

Let us look to the future

As we approach our second post-war Christmas and the New Year, it is well to reflect on the events of the past twelve months, and to look into the future.

The record of 1946 is not one of which the American people can be proud. The nation's reconversion program has been snarled by much internal strife and ill feeling. We have not "measured up." On the other hand, we have many things for which to be thankful. Our great and beautiful land was not ravaged by war. We are rich in natural resources. We have the intelligence, ability and tools to produce. Despite shortages, we enjoy the highest standard of living in the world. Above all, we still have the freedom and right to choose our own way of life.

So, at this season of good will and good cheer, let all of us look to the future with strong faith in our country. Let us accept the challenge of the New Year . . . and work together in the good old common sense American way for the welfare and progress of our nation, and for a lasting peace among mankind.

In this spirit, the Norfolk and Western Family extends to all of its friends and patrons heartiest Christmas greetings and best wishes for a happier and more prosperous New Year.

There's more to a car than this . . .

There's more to telephone service than this . . .

While you are reading this paragraph, another telephone instrument is being made. Western Electric, supply unit of the Bell System, is now turning them out at the rate of one every six seconds.

Does this mean that all families who are waiting for telephone service will have a telephone next week? No. We wish it did. But in many places, we're still short of cable, switchboards and other central office equipment. Without this other equipment the telephones are only so many bare instruments — like steering wheels without the cars.

We're installing telephones at a rapid rate. But the new orders are pouring in as fast as we can fill the old ones.

We're busy on the biggest construction and expansion program in our history.

Shortages of materials have held this program back. Now, as conditions permit, we're going full speed ahead — for more and better telephone service than ever.

THE SEASON'S GREETING TO YOU FROM US and

SATNA CLAUS!

You need not turn back the Pages of Time
To renew my belief in Saint Nick;
No excuses are needed for what to some seems
The mind of a child — of a Hick!
To me He is real; Good Spirits — Good Cheer —
The finest of Goodfellowship;
The warmth of a handclasp — the "pat on the back" —
A word of advice ere we slip!

He's ever considerate — quite thoughtful and just —
He's tolerant towards all of mankind;
He finds it "more blessed to give than receive" —
Just the jolliest Old Chap you can find!
He's friendly; sympathetic to those in distress;
Has a smile for the High and the low;
Oh! I'm for Old Santa a hundred percent —
He's the Spirit of Christmas, you know!

So — hang up your stocking and fix up a tree —
Get ready for a glad Xmas Day;
Light in each window a candle to guide —
The wanderer who passes your way.
Keep smiling on all the good folks that you meet —
"As you sow, you will reap," don't forget!
Be quite sure Santa's living — He's the Spirit of Giving;
And a bully Old Saint, you can bet!

Help Asked To Aid Needy Family

Virginia Beach has no JOY FUND and it would appear that no one in Princess Anne County needs the thought and care of some one else. However, such is not the case.

Through a member of the Training Union of the Virginia Beach Baptist Church it has come to the attention of the NEWS that there are such cases in the County and that some one in the community is trying to brighten up their Christmas. In one such group is a family of two boys, ages 8 and 14, a mother and father, average size. They are in need of clothes, food and the other small items which go to make up the necessities of life.

The members of the Training Union are endeavoring to bring a bit of cheer and comfort to this family. Any contribution, large or small, food or clothing will be most acceptable. A phone call to 2087-J will bring a car to collect the gift or anything brought to the NEWS office will be turned over to the persons in charge.

This is your opportunity to bring Christmas to some who are less fortunate than others.

Santa Claus will come to Virginia Beach for a real Christmas party on Monday before Christmas, according to E. B. Bayne, president of the Playground Association. In the absence of the traditional reindeer and sleigh bells old Santa will arrive on the fire truck with siren wide open.

Once more the merchants on the Beach are cooperating 100 per cent. A large tree will be set up in the center of the playground. Electric companies and electric appliance stores in the community are wiring the tree and furnishing the lights. Merchants are donating the gifts and in the absence of stockings to hold the candies and fruits Miss Mary Gilmert, secretary at Police Headquarters volunteered to make the needed 600 bags to hang on the tree. These bags will be packed by members of the Lions Club.

Group singing will be under the direction of Mrs. Russell Gilmert. Mrs. John Addenbrook and Mrs. Ristow Hardin, who have been appointed to serve on the music committee.

Other members of the committee taking part in the affair are Sidney Kellam of the Rotary Club, Joe Crosswhite of the Lions Club, Mrs. Lonnie Meschum of the FFA, Mrs. Russell Hatchett of the Woman's Club and Claude B. Bell of the volunteer fire department.

Mr. R. A. Jones, who is in charge of the arrangements said that the party is scheduled to start at 7 p.m. Monday night and in case of bad weather the party will be held in the USO auditorium.

Santa Claus To Visit Oceana Field

Santa Claus will come to the Children at Oceana Air Field on Friday, December 20 at 2 p.m. In true traditional fashion with the exception of the reindeer, he will come through the air but will be borne in a plane instead of the sleigh.

The party will be held in the gymnasium, which will be decorated with Christmas greens and a large tree will stand in the center of the room. Candy and presents for each child by name will be given approximately 15 children between the ages of 2 and 10. The party is given by the station for the children of the personnel and a number of children of the Beach.

Plans Made For Everett School Christmas Party

The pupils of Mrs. Everett's School will have their regular Christmas party in the school on Friday, December 20.

On Saturday at 3:30 p.m. at the U. S. O. Club there will be a special carol service when the children will sing carols of all countries, three French Carols will be sung in French. Parents and friends are invited to this Carol Sing and Mrs. Everett asks all parents whose children are to take part that the children be at the USO at 3:00 p.m.

PRESIDENT HUNTING FOR BIDS

President Truman has created a six-man committee to make an investigation of Government Departments and to report to him in two months the names of persons it discovers may be disloyal and of questionable political views that drift towards Communism. The open question is why doesn't he ask the Federal Bureau of Investigation, J. Edgar Hoover could tell him the names of all of them.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

CHEESE, one of the most nourishing and popular foods known to man, is again appearing in increasing quantity in food stores as supplies increase after nearly five years' absence due to the war.

The exact place of origin of cheese is unknown. However, it is the generally accepted belief that cheese was first discovered by a shepherd of ancient times while tending his flock. It was the custom in olden times for shepherds to take a noon day meal to the fields much as the American working man takes a lunch to work each day. This shepherd carried his milk in a gourd made from the belly of a calf. Apparently the hide had not been properly cured, and when he decided to partake of his noon day repast nothing of a liquid nature remained in the gourd.

Upon opening the container with a knife the shepherd found a white, thick substance which he sampled and found appealing. Thus, by accident, cheese was added to man's diet. During the centuries that have elapsed, the manufacture of cheese has been improved and perfected until today this food ranks with other staples in the world's menu. Cheese is almost the sole food that has an international following and can be found in all the markets of the world.

Today, cheese is being produced in 1/2 and 1 pound sizes, according to the A & P Service for Home-Makers, so that a consumer can tell at a glance just what type and how much cheese she needs. Cheese has many uses at the American dinner table, it may be eaten in its natural state or used in sandwiches or salads. In cooking it has many uses such as the well known Welsh Rabbit or spread over vegetables and casseroles before baking. It changes flavor and adds protein and vitamins to every day dishes.

For Sunday dinner try broiled steak, fresh peas, as grain potatoes with a mixed green salad followed by apple pie with cheese and a beverage.

JIM FARLEY TALKS SENSE

One of the interesting historical characters of the 1930's was James J. Farley, Postmaster General and chairman of the Democratic National Committee. Farley has just returned from a trip around the World, and according to this old-time statesman and philosopher there is no immediate prospect for resumption of international trade until the terms of World peace are settled. He found political unrest, black markets and inflation everywhere. But everywhere there was a "strong desire for peace."

He said: "The sooner Russia joins in cooperating with the rest of the World the sooner worldwide uncertainty now existing will be dispelled."

Uncle Henpeck—You boys of today want too much money. Do you know what I was getting when I married your aunt?"

Nephew—No, and I'll bet didn't either."

"We get our parents when they are so old that it is very hard to change their habits."

Second G. I. Joe: "No, but I picked up a little Cuban one night in Havana."

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKinn

On the night that Franklin Delano Roosevelt died, a young soldier stood in a silent group which clustered around the White House. "I felt as if I knew him," he said to someone standing near him. He paused and added, "I felt as if he knew me, and I felt as if he liked me."

FRANCES PERKINS

Frances Perkins knew Roosevelt very well and understood him better than most. Her book "The Roosevelt I Knew," is a revealing and sympathetic study. Mrs. Perkins first met Roosevelt at a dance in 1910, when she was a young social worker just out of college, and he an attractive, rich young man making a modest debut in State politics. Over the following thirty-five years she watched his whole career unfold. She became an intimate family friend and, as Secretary of Labor, she served in his cabinet from his first inauguration until his death.

The core of Roosevelt's character, Mrs. Perkins says, was a capacity for living and growing that remained with him to the end. "It accounts," she says, "for his rise from a rather unpromising young man to a great man... who so impressed himself upon his time that he can never be forgotten..."

Bennett Cerf, whose "Try and Stop Me" was a Book-of-the-Month Club book-dividend and a best-seller, has a new book out—"Anything for a Laugh." In it he tells of a prospective tenant being interviewed by his landlord. "I must remind you," the landlord said, "that I will not tolerate children, dogs, cats, or parrots. And no piano playing. And no radio. Is that clear?" "Yes, sir," agreed the man meekly. "But I think you must know that my fountain pen scratches a little."

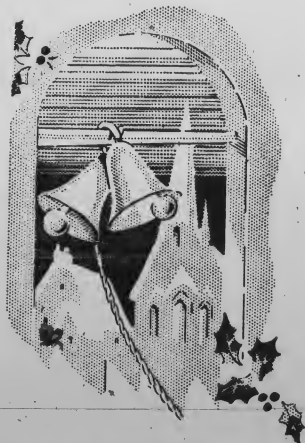

Also in Mr. Cerf's new book is the story about the man in Tokyo who bought a 1942 calendar for a penny a week. "What on earth are you going to do with it?" he asked. "It's rather a long chance, I admit," he said, "but, oh boy, if 1942 ever comes back, I'll make a fortune."

A Christmas Prayer

Ruth Taylor

Most mighty and merciful Father, God of us all alike, let the consciousness of their presence be in our hearts this Christmas Day. Help us to carry into our daily lives the knowledge that all men, whatever be their speech, their color or their creed, are Thy sons and our brothers. Make us to understand that only as we have love for our fellow man can we properly keep the day which no man can keep alone. Give to us the gifts of patience, kindness and forbearance toward our fellow men. Open our hearts to understanding and our spirit to justice for all. In the unity of common faith in Thy universal Fatherhood and in Thy holy law of love, we ask this, in the name of Him in whose honor we keep Christmas. Amen.

Christmas Bells are Ringing Merrily...

... And it is pleasant to remember old friends, and to wish them, in a genuine sort of way, all the joys of a Happy Christmas.

May Health, Happiness and Prosperity be yours, not only on this day, but every day throughout the years to come.

Xmas Tree Fires Are Unnecessary

Most fire departments issue strict rules for flameproofing Christmas decorations in stores, hotels and other public buildings. But the American private home, under no such compulsion, is the Yuletide scene of scores of accidents which are due to the time-honored but highly inflammable Christmas tree. These tragedies, often fatal, can be prevented, according to Paul W. Kerney in the December issue of the Reader's Digest. His article condensed from Public Safety, tells how.

A simple fireproofing procedure for trees, recommended by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, utilizes a solution of ammonium sulphate and water. A Christmas tree, with its butt standing in a container of the solution for a few days, will absorb most of the liquid. After this treatment, details of which are given in the Digest article, a tree won't be ignited by an electric spark or a cigarette, Kerney says.

If flameproof cotton "snow" is unobtainable, similar material can be sprayed with fireproofing mixtures sold by hardware stores. Local fire prevention bureaus and insurance offices can give the names of approved preparations.

Many fire chiefs, trying to safeguard the private home, conducted information campaigns in press and radio each holiday season. Despite such warnings, Kerney notes, fatal Christmas tree fires totaled more than 60 last year and nonfatal outbreaks were numbered in the hundreds.

Origin of Holly As Xmas Decoration

Holly has been used for decorations at Christmas as indicated in many ancient Christmas carols such as:

"Deck the hall with boughs of holly
"Tis the season to be jolly!"

The custom dates back to the time of the ancient Romans who used holly in connection with the celebration of their Saturnalia which occurs about the same time as Christmas. Since the leaves of the Holly tree were always green and it was most beautiful at a time of year when other trees were barren, some believed it to be sacred. The idea spread that holly is hateful to witches because of its thorns and well therefore used on doors and windows to keep evil spirits away and down through the years it has become one of the leading symbols of well-being at Christmas.
